5. Who does what

LPC Management OÜ is the seller of the MatrixVision Home Practitioner Course and of the MatrixVision Training Pack. It issues invoices, receives payment, grants access to the course and is your contractual counterparty for the purchase.

The MatrixVision Academy [insert full legal name, legal form and registered address], Switzerland, develops the MatrixVision Protocol™ and delivers the training content, and runs the MatrixVision Live Courses.

MatrixVision® and MatrixVision Protocol™ are used under licence from the rights holder. MatrixVision is a separate training program built on natural principles discovered by Mark Komissarov; it is not InfoVision, and it is neither offered by nor affiliated with him.

6. Authorisation and supervision

The activity carried on through this website — the sale of educational and experiential training material — is not an activity requiring official authorisation, and there is no supervisory authority responsible for it.

The training offered is educational. It is not medical treatment, diagnosis or therapy, it is not a regulated health service, and it is not provided by a regulated profession.

7. Consumer dispute resolution

We aim to settle any complaint directly. Please write to support@lpcgroup.com in the first instance.

Consumers may also refer a dispute to the Consumer Disputes Committee at the Estonian Consumer Protection and Technical Regulatory Authority (Tarbijavaidluste komisjon, Tarbijakaitse ja Tehnilise Järelevalve Amet), Endla 10a, 10122 Tallinn, Estonia — <https://www.ttja.ee>

Consumers resident in other countries may in addition be entitled to use a dispute resolution body in their own country of residence. Nothing in this notice restricts any right a consumer has under the law of their country of residence.

We are not obliged to participate in dispute resolution proceedings before a consumer arbitration board, and we are not willing to do so.

8. Liability for content

We prepare the content of this website with care. We are responsible for our own content in accordance with the general law.

We are not obliged to monitor transmitted or stored third-party information, or to investigate circumstances indicating unlawful activity. Obligations to remove or block the use of information under the general law remain unaffected. Any liability in this respect arises only from the point at which we become aware of a specific infringement. On becoming aware of such an infringement we will remove the content concerned without delay.

9. Liability for links

This website contains links to external websites operated by third parties, over whose content we have no influence. We cannot accept any liability for that content. Responsibility for the content of a linked page lies always with its provider or operator.

Linked pages were checked for possible legal infringements at the time of linking. No unlawful content was apparent at that time. Permanent monitoring of the content of linked pages is not reasonable without concrete evidence of an infringement. On becoming aware of an infringement we will remove the link without delay.

10. Copyright

The content and works created by the operator on these pages are protected by copyright. Reproduction, adaptation, distribution and any form of exploitation beyond the limits of copyright require the written consent of the respective author or creator. Downloads and copies of this site are permitted for private, non-commercial use only.

Where the content on this site was not created by the operator, the copyright of third parties is respected, and third-party content is identified as such. Should you nevertheless become aware of a copyright infringement, please inform us accordingly. On becoming aware of an infringement we will remove the content without delay.

The course materials, videos, workbook, success log, practice templates and the MatrixVision Protocol™ are licensed to the purchaser for personal use and may not be copied, recorded, re-transmitted, shared or resold. The separate Platform Terms of Use apply to the members' area and the video platform.

11. Trade marks

MatrixVision® is a registered trade mark. MatrixVision Protocol™ is a trade mark of the rights holder. Other product and company names mentioned on this website may be the trade marks of their respective owners and are used for identification purposes only.
